Appreciation, through Education, leads to Preservation

MAPA Mission Statement: MAPA believes that interpreting the language of nature to humans and enlightening people on our cultural history, raises awareness of our vital interconnection with nature, encouraging the protection of our valuable resources.

EXHIBITOR'S AGREEMENT

Abalone Cook-Off & Festival 2011

I agree to pay $35 for each 10 x 10 space at the 2011 Abalone Cook-Off & Festival, to be held Saturday, October 8, 2011 at Noyo Harbor in Fort Bragg, CA.

I understand and agree that the Mendocino Area Parks Association (MAPA) is not responsible for lost or damaged materials or artwork. I also understand and agree to hold MAPA harmless for any accident or injury arising from the sale or display of my items.

I understand that I am responsible for all of the display equipment, including but not limited to tables, chairs, and items to display my art. I understand that my $35 booth fee is non-refundable and must be sent to MAPA by August 31, 2011. I further understand that I must have a current CA Sales Tax License and will send in the sales tax form along with this registration form and my money.

I understand that the art that can be displayed and/or offered for sale must follow a nature theme. They can be related to the ocean or to the natural environment, or be made out of ocean-related or other natural materials.

Please include or email photos of your items.
